

St. Michael's Church

Announcement for 1/30/2022

We are pleased to announce that Deacon Paul has had a successful surgery and is in recovery. He has left ICU and is in the Cardiac unit receiving care. His surgeon remains optimistic about his progress. Please keep him in your prayers during his recovery.

The Albany Roman Catholic series on "What is the Synod and Why Should I Care" continues this Tuesday February 1 with the topic Part 2: Walking & Listening Together."

This three-part series of zoom presentations is open to everyone, even if you did not attend Part 1. All parishioners from both St. Michael's and Holy Trinity are invited to attend in person at St. Michael's parish hall if you want to participate. There are two times on Tuesday available to attend the session. The first one will be from 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM and the second time will be from 7:00pm to 8:30 PM. Both sessions will be held in St. Michael's Church Hall. More information on the synodal journey can be found in upcoming bulletins, at the Albany Dioceses web site, and the Evangelist.

The Rosary Valentine calendars are still available for sale. For 10 dollars you have 28 opportunities to win. Please help support the parish by purchasing a calendar or two.

Finally, please keep Father John in your prayers as they proceed in their journeys to health.
